“ Although I've only known Mark a short time,we enjoyed conversations many times. I found his thoughts and stories concerning friends and family to bring him much happiness. I am now missing that time we spent together chatting almost daily from the time we first became acquainted. I did have to turn him down on the offer to buy his apple/cherry 'farm' in Montana though.And then,flirting with our breakfast waitress while congratulating her on her engagement,gave me a bit of a chuckle.His honesty and plans did not include kicking any bucket before completing at least some of those plans. I can only say the hearts and lives he touched will keep his spirit thriving. My heartfelt sympathies to all who know him.

“ Mark and I were friends in grade school at St. Pat's, and we always shared great laughs. I moved away before 8th grade, and we fell out of touch. However, I thought of him often and extend my sincere condolences to his family.

“ I remember Mark as a fun-loving kid who had a lot of friends. Even though I went to Fremont High, many good friends of mine went to Bergan. I'm sure my brother Pud was there to welcoime him into heaven. Respectfully-Gregg Kupfer
