“ What a great lady, I am sure she will be missed by many. So hard to lose both your folks in one year. My sister Deb sent me the notice from Florida. Seems like bad news travels fast and far, best wishes to everyone in the family

“ Mrs. Tegt knew she wanted to follow Mr. Tegt after his recent death. They were pillars in Fremont during my formative years. Lots of good memories of Richee Dairy and lots of fun with their son Dave. Her death is an example of how the Lord keeps two loyal, devoted people together for eternity. I'm sure my brother Pud was their to welcome her into heaven. respectfully-Kup

“ Condolences to Kathy's family. My parents, Glen and Chrissie Ilgenfritz, lived across the street from Bob and Kathy in the 1960 - 1980 period. We shared good times over the years. Until I read the obit. I was unaware that Bob had also passed away. My sister and I send our condolences on the loss of both of your parents.

Sincerely, John Ilgenfritz and Mary Emery
